Elevator Pitch

We are rescuing bees and wasps, both species fundamental to the sustainability of our food chain. The wasps relocate naturally after relocating their saved nests. The bees are rescued and taken to apiaries to develop the second business unit and for sure a much bigger business in the short term. We are focused in the B2B segment and hopefully will be able to fund with these corporate clients many rescues in lower class neighborhoods (according to statistics from the Cali's Fire Department, in 20
