Elevator Pitch

We want to sell a recycled RPET Filament to scale to aeronautical and automotive industry to help the industry be cleaner

Climate Problem

We present the opportunity to develop businesses by incorporate plastic waste into the value chain, because in Mexico 340 thousand tons of plastic waste are recycled per year, representing a recycling rate of 30%, we want to improve this numbers with an innovative business model. x000D The initial costumer is the Maker's segments, they will be creative while taking care of the planet.
